I. INTRODUCTION

The adopted amendments to the Health Act promulgated in the State Gazette, issue No. 44, dated 13.05.2020, regulate the measures for overcoming the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, which to be applied on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria after the lifting of the State of Emergency. The transitional and final provisions of the Amendment Act (the "Act") also provide for a set of changes in other legal acts, which are the subject of this Bulletin.

The provisions of the Act shall enter into force as of 14.05.2020. It should be noted that on the day of entry into force the President of the Republic of Bulgaria challenged part of the introduced amendments before the Constitutional Court. However, the changes should be applied until they are declared unconstitutional.

Below we present to your attention a summary of the key changes introduced by the Act.

II. KEY AMENDMENTS REGARDING TERMS OF DIFFERENT NATURE

The terms, which stopped running during the State of Emergency under the Law on Measures and Actions During the State of Emergency, continue to run after the expiration of 7 days from the promulgation of the Law (21.05.2020).

1. Amendments regarding pending enforcement proceedings:

- During the State of Emergency and two months after its lifting, no preservations of bank accounts of natural persons, preservations of wages and pensions, as well as inventories of movable and immovable property owned by individuals are imposed, except for liabilities for maintenance, for damages from tort and for receivables for wages.
- Within two months after the lifting of the State of Emergency against natural persons, all announced public sales and entries into possession are suspended, after which they are rescheduled, without additional fees and expenses.

2. Amendments affecting the social sector:

- Requirements for receiving monthly social allowances bound by the obligation of community service laid by unemployed persons / regular attendance at school by a child, as well as monthly family allowances for a child up to secondary education / for raising a child up to one year in connection with compulsory immunizations and regular school attendance do not apply until September 30, 2020.
- For a period of up to 6 months after the lifting of the state of emergency, the National Employment Agency transfers compensations in the amount of BGN 290.00 for certain categories of persons subject to insurance under the Social Insurance Code.

3. Amendments affecting the energy sector:

To ensure energy security, the price / regulatory period ending on 30 June 2020 for the prices of companies in the electricity sector, may be extended by up to two months from the date of expiry of the period.

III. KEY AMENDMENTS RELATED TO PUBLIC AND PRIVATE FINANCING

Up to two months after the lifting of the State of Emergency in case of delay in payment of obligations under credit agreements and other forms of financing provided by financial institutions, no interest for delay and penalties shall be charged. The obligation cannot be declared pre-term due and the contract cannot be terminated due to non-performance.

During the State of Emergency and two months after its lifting, the Heads of the Managing Authorities of the European Structural and Investment Funds have the right to terminate the procedure for granting financial assistance with a motivated decision in order to provide funding in accordance with the need for measures to overcome the occurred consequences of the pandemic.

The funds in the municipal guarantee funds for small and medium enterprises should be used to cover part of the credit risk in the amount of up to 80 percent of the value of granted loans.

IV. KEY AMENDMENTS RELATED TO STATE / MUNICIPAL PROPERTY RENTING

During the State of Emergency and two months after its lifting, the ministers, district governors and municipal councils that have provided for rent or for use state / municipal property may reduce the amount of the rent instalments or exempt from payment in full or in part persons who have restricted or suspended their activities in the property as a result of the measures and restrictions imposed during the State of Emergency.
